BEST NEW PICTURE BOOKS OF 2009

CODE 801J10

This new collection of outstanding picture books will encourage interaction and enjoyment as well as an incentive to start and develop their reading skills. Children in the first years of school need to experience as wide a range of books as possible; stories which we read to them and books which they read for themselves. This collection will provide a rich and stimulating treasure trove, suitable for both boys and girls and a wide range of tastes and reading abilities.

FAIRY TALES & RHYMES

“Children’s poetry has a unique power to engage and inspire young readers. Poems that children love can help to develop all literacy skills; not just reading but also speaking and listening skills.”

National Literacy Trust

Traditional tales are part of our national heritage and give children important references for future reading. They support imaginative development and creativity and many opportunities for joining in with the group. This is a wonderful, must-have collection for every child to enjoy.
