

CAREERS & ART

CAREERS

NEW

These new collections provide an essential range of books to help students develop their understanding about different types of work and the range of opportunities available to them. They both support the new programme of study in economic wellbeing and financial capability for PSHE, bringing together careers education, work-related learning, enterprise and financial capability.

ART & DESIGN

NEW

These collections will develop students' understanding of different art movements in history and how they can inspire and inform their own work. Both our art collections provide an excellent range of superbly illustrated books to help students reflect on their own and other people's work, develop an appreciation of art, craft and design and even find out how to extend their portfolio in preparation for art school.
